The Business of Doing Good

In Our Neighborhoods and for the Planet
With almost 10,000 locations across the United States ...

... We. Are. Here.

More than 120,000 diverse and talented team members and Franchisees meeting the needs of 7-Eleven customers — both in 7-Eleven stores and in their communities — each and every day. Since 1927, the 7-Eleven team has been dedicated to making life more convenient for people. So while life has certainly not been easy this year, through it all, 7-Eleven has continued to lead through service. And we’re just getting started.
The COVID-19 global pandemic affects every aspect of our daily lives, presenting new challenges to customers, Franchisees, the 7-Eleven business and team members. We are proud to work with a variety of national and community organizations to provide urgent relief where it’s needed most, while also ensuring that 7-Eleven® stores continue to provide customers what they need when they need it.

A Vital Lifeline to the Community

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

$1.26M of 7-Select Go!Smart™ Organic Cold-Pressed Juices to Feeding America and its member food banks

1M Masks to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to supplement personal protective equipment (PPE) shortages in hospitals

$130.9M in financial support to 7-Eleven Franchisees and 7-Eleven stores to ensure these essential community businesses remained operational

We are grateful for 7-Eleven’s commitment to donate much-needed product to Feeding America member food banks,” said Tony Pupillo, Managing Director of Retail Food Industry Partnerships at Feeding America. “The need for food assistance is even greater this summer due to the pandemic, but this donation will help our neighbors who struggle to put food on their tables.”
During this unprecedented time, we remain focused on our commitment to sustainable development. In fact, 7-Eleven has made substantial progress already, even exceeding our CO2 goal for 2027!

$41.6M to keep stores open and safe for customers and team members, including an investment in PPE for team members, plexiglass installations, and enhanced cleaning and sanitation.

More than $20K to the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation to support food insecure youth in the Dallas area.
We’re continuing our support of 7-Eleven’s signature community engagement and giving programs, which play a vital role in healthy, growing neighborhoods and directly benefit the well-being of youth:

Celebrating 25 Years donating more than 23 million Operation Chill® coupons to 1,100+ U.S. law enforcement agencies

50 grants totaling nearly $50K provided through the Project A-Game® program

“Our store is part of the neighborhood, and as such, we wanted to be good neighbors to the community that we serve,” said Franchisee Hector Murillo of Evergreen Park, IL. “Our Project A-Game grant lets us play a part in local kids’ success, and I can’t think of a better way to give back.”

When the global pandemic began, 7-Eleven and its Franchisees did what we always do: we went above and beyond to take care of our neighbors. In addition to the donations and programs highlighted, the brand hired nearly 18,000 new employees to ensure 7-Eleven stores remain clean and in-stock with the goods customers need during this critical time, as well as to meet the surge in mobile orders through the 7NOW® delivery app. This was on top of the $80,000 worth of food, beverages and other essential products — including masks and paper towels — donated by 7-Eleven Franchisees to support front-line workers and first responders in their communities.

“As police officers, the relationships we share with the community are extremely important,” said Washington D.C. Police Chief Peter Newsham. “Community engagement campaigns like Operation Chill are a great way for us to bond with the youth of our city over a Slurpee drink.”

Thank you to each and every Franchisee, community partner, supplier and team member for your flexibility, your creativity and your unwavering dedication,” said Keith Jones, Vice President of ESG, 7-Eleven. “I’m inspired by our team every day and am especially proud of our commitment to leading through service, to creating job opportunities and to providing essential needs in our communities during this unprecedented time.”
